DEFENDANT: JASON MAXWELL MEHL
CASE NUMBER: CR 17-29-M-DWM

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You shall provide the United States Probation Officer with any requested financial information and shall incur no new lines of credit without prior approval of the United States Probation Officer. You must notify the Probation Officer of any material changes in your economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay restitution, fines or special assessments.
2. You shall submit your person, residence, place of employment, vehicles, and papers, to a search, with or without a warrant by any probation officer based on reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence in violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. You shall warn any other occupants, adults and minors, that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. You shall allow seizure of suspected contraband for further examination.
3. You shall participate in and successfully complete a program of substance abuse treatment as approved by the United States Probation Office, until you are released from the program by the probation officer. You are to pay part or all of the cost of this treatment, as directed by the United States Probation Office and depending on your ability to pay.
4. You shall participate in a program for mental health treatment as deemed necessary by the United States Probation Office, until such time as you are released from the program by the probation office. You are to pay part or all of the cost of this treatment, as directed by the United States Probation Office and depending on your ability to pay.
5. You shall abstain from the consumption of alcohol and shall not enter establishments where alcohol is the primary item of sale. You shall not knowingly enter any dwelling or house where there is the active or ongoing use, abuse or consumption of alcohol or controlled substances and shall not knowingly enter or stay in any dwelling or house where there is one or more persons who are consuming alcohol or participating in the consumption of alcoholic beverages or controlled substances, without the prior written approval of the supervising probation officer. You shall not knowingly enter any automobile where a person possesses or is consuming alcohol or controlled substances.
6. You shall participate in substance abuse testing, to include not more than 280 urinalysis tests, not more than 280 breathalyzer tests, and not more than 36 sweat patch applications annually during the period of supervision. You shall pay all or part of the costs of testing as directed by the United States Probation Office and depending on your ability to pay.
7. You shall not possess, ingest or inhale any toxic substances such as, but not limited to, synthetic marijuana and/or synthetic stimulants such as bath salts, spice, and kratom, that are not manufactured for human consumption, for the purpose of altering you mental or physical state.
8. You shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute or administer marijuana, or obtain or possess a medical marijuana card or prescription.
9. You must meet any legal obligation to support or make payment toward the support of any person including any dependent child, the co-parent or caretaker of a dependent child, or a spouse or former spouse.
